Wine is a funny thing. It is debated by so many people who all share the same goal, to find that perfect wine or the perfect pairing with the right food. Here at The Bistro we don't care if you eat Tilapia with a Merlot or have a well done steak with a Pinot Grigio. All we care about is that you enjoy your meal and your wine. So sit back, enjoy and let us serve you.

Thanks for coming,
The Bistro Team
